

THE FACULTY OF DENTISTRY OF UNHAS CONDUCTED DISCUSSION WITH INTERNATIONAL STUDENT AND RESEARCHER

The Faculty of Dentistry of Universitas Hasanuddin organizes an International Student and Researcher Talks involving dental experts from various countries such as Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, and the Netherlands as speakers. The activity with the theme “Sharing Clinical Research and Learning Experiences During the Covid-19 and New Normal Pandemic” took place at 19.30 West Indonesia Time through the Zoom application, Tuesday (5/26).

The Unhas academic community, especially the Faculty of Dentistry, continues to carry out learning and research activities even in the Covid-19 pandemic situation and preparing for a new normal period. The activity was very useful, especially because during the Covid-19 pandemic, the community is faced with situations that require rapid response in all sectors of life including learning and research. It is expected that the researchers will produce their findings on how to handle the Covid-19 or produce other innovations, especially in the current pandemic crisis.

The Covid-19 pandemic has different impacts on many countries and this also includes the impact on educational activities aspect.

During the Covid-19 pandemic, the Faculty of Dentistry of Universitas Hasanuddin issued responsive policies in the anticipation of the Covid-19. Some of these include dissemination of information and workshop using the online learning system (SIKOLA application) and online learning system processes at all levels and degrees in the Faculty of Dentistry.

CONT'D

The Faculty of Dentistry will further be prepared to enter the New Normal period by waiting for policies and regulations from the government which then will be applied in the Universitas Hasanuddin.

FACULTY OF PUBLIC HEALTH OF UNIVERSITAS HASANUDDIN ESTABLISHED THE SECOND SERIES OF INTERNATIONAL WEBINAR ON COVID-19

The Faculty of Public Health of Universitas Hasanuddin conducted an International Webinar entitled “International Webinar on Covid-19 Series-Two”.

The webinar was held on Friday (29/5) via the Zoom meeting application and live streaming on the Faculty of Public Health of Universitas Hasanuddin Youtube channel. Some speakers include Arianto Patunru, Ph.D. (Department of Economics, Crawford School of Public Policy, College of Asia and The Pacific, The Australian National University), and Dicky Budiman, Ph.D., (Griffith University, Australia).

This activity is expected to be a way of exchanging information and knowledge development to respond to pandemic issues based on the perspective of public health science.

Dicky Budiman, Ph.D., as one of the speakers discussed a topic related to “Pandemic Exit Strategy: History and Covid-19 Options”. In his presentation, he stated that more in-depth research is needed on how this pandemic occurs because this pandemic not only has an impact on environmental changes but also on human interconnection.

FACULTY OF ECONOMICS & BUSINESS UNHAS CONDUCTED WEBINAR ON LEADERSHIP SYNERGY IN OVERCOMING COVID-19

Handling Corona or Covid-19 virus pandemic requires strong synergy between institutions. Starting from the central government to local governments. This was explained by the Gowa Regent, Adnan Purichta Ichsan as a guest speaker at a seminar entitled “Leadership Synergy Overcoming Covid-19” conducted by the Laboratory of the Management Department of the Faculty of Economics and Business, Universitas Hasanuddin, Thursday (5/21/2020).

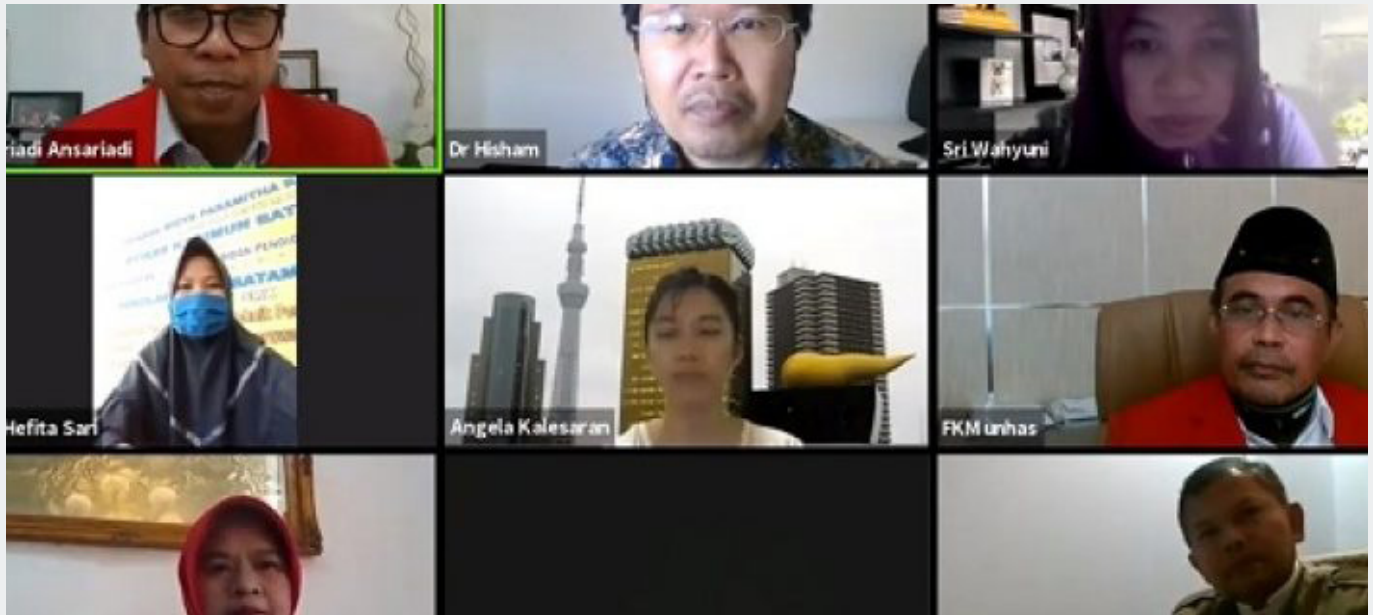

In addition to the synergy between the government, synergy or cooperation from all parties is also needed such as from society, leaders, and other elements and community organizations including academics. “Academics must take part in providing understanding and education to the public about the impacts and dangers of Covid-19. So that people can improve discipline and not underestimate this” said the Gowa Regent, Adnan Purichta.

Unhas FEB lecturer, Muhammad Idrus Taba agreed that the Large-Scale Social Restrictions (PSBB) conducted by the Gowa Regency Government had been implemented successfully. He appreciated that the handling of Covid-19 in the Gowa Regency was implemented very well with close cooperation and extensive support from other stakeholders.

PRESENTING PROFESSOR FROM TAIWAN, FACULTY OF PUBLIC HEALTH UNIVERSITAS HASANUDDIN HELD INTERNATIONAL WEBINAR ON COVID-19

Public Health Faculty of Universitas Hasanuddin held an International Webinar on Covid-19. This activity was held online, Thursday (05/14/2020). This webinar presented two presenters from abroad, Prof. Li-Sheng Chen from Taipei Medical University in Taiwan and Hishamuddin Badaruddin who is Director and Public Healthcare Leader, Deloitte Consulting South-East Asia.

This activity aimed to provide new insights for the handling of Covid-19 in Indonesia. One of them is the key to success in Taiwan by monitoring the spread with epidemic curves and using epidemiological data is very helpful in determining the mitigation and handling policy of Covid-19 in Taiwan. The Webinar was attended by more than 200 participants who watched live via Zoom and Youtube Channel of Faculty of Public Health UNHAS.

International webinar activities like this are very useful and the Faculty of Public Health of Unhas will regularly schedule webinars like this.
